

Job/ Internships Opportunities in NASA

Internship Opportunity in NASA Student Airborne Research Program (SARP) 2018

Application Deadline: January 31, 2018

SARP participants will receive a $5,000 stipend, a travel allowance, and free housing and local transportation during the 8-week program.

The eight-week program begins June 18, 2018 and concludes August 10, 2018.

The NASA Airborne Science Program invites highly motivated advanced undergraduates who will be rising seniors in summer 2018 to apply for participation in the 10th annual NASA Student Airborne Research Program (SARP 2018). Students will work in multi-disciplinary teams to study surface, atmospheric, and oceanographic processes.

Applicants must be US citizens.
